

2020 3-day Guided Bike Tour Itinerary, Cotswolds

Cotswolds, Blenheim Palace, Oxford, Stonehenge

Duration 3 days / 2 nights

Start Moreton in Marsh

Finish Stonehenge

Our 3-day, 2-night tour will lead you through honey coloured Cotswold villages and busy little market towns, over rolling hills and down country lanes. The Cotswolds is perfect biking country, taking the quietest roads you will feel transported back into England as it was before mechanisation, where sheep and dry-stone walling were the biggest industries. Relax and enjoy global heritage sites including the university city of Oxford, Churchill's Blenheim Palace and the Neolithic wonder of Stonehenge.

With stunning views around every corner, excellent accommodation, wonderful pubs and beautiful cuisine, Active England will give you an experience you won't forget.

Itinerary

Day 1 We meet you at 9am at Moreton in Marsh train station, a 1hr30 direct train ride from London. We will set you up with your bikes and set off to wind our way through the majestic countryside of the Cotswolds, taking in some of the most well-known towns and villages including Chipping Campden, Bourton on the Water, The Slaughters and the majestic Broadway Tower. For lunch we eat in the stunning Hidcote Gardens, returning to Moreton in Marsh in the evening.

Day 2 We cycle out from the hotel through the beautiful Cotswolds to Blenheim Palace, where Winston Churchill was born and a World Heritage Site. The morning's ride is around 20 miles, through rolling countryside. At Blenheim guests can eat lunch over-looking the Capability Brown parklands and give you ample time to explore the historical palace and walk through some of the 3000 acre estate. We travel into Oxford in the evening for a walk through the historical university town and a dinner out in the city.

Day 3 We travel from Burford towards the stunning White Horse Hill to see the beautiful ancient carving atop the Ridgeway. We cycle to lunch in the White Horse pub in Woolstone. After lunch we travel onto Avebury (Stonehenge but bigger) and then Stonehenge itself to complete our Neolithic Day. The tour ends in the late afternoon after Stonehenge, where we help guests with their ongoing travel arrangements.

London is a 1.5hour train journey from Salisbury station, or many guests choose to stay for dinner and an extra night in the spa city of Bath at the end of their tour.
